

Healthy Rural California, Inc

Healthy Rural California Psychiatry Residency is a new community psychiatry residency in Chico, California and rural Butte County. Residents will spend their first year in Sacramento working with UC Davis and the VA of Northern California. In years two through four they will rotate with psychiatrists in our rural community. We are looking for residents that want to serve the underserved and invest in our community.