

American Association of Directors of Psychiatric Residency Training

Biosketch

Enrico Castillo, MD, MS

AADPRT Position: Presidential Appointee

Enrico Castillo, M.D., M.S., is an associate professor and the Associate Vice Chair for Justice, Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion at the University of California – Los Angeles (UCLA) Department of Psychiatry and Biobehavioral Sciences. He is a faculty member in the Center for Social Medicine and a member of the California State Council on Criminal Justice and Behavioral Health. Dr. Castillo's research focuses on health equity, serious mental illness, and community-public-academic partnerships, with the aim to improve the capacity of public systems to address inequities. He currently leads a NIMH-funded project on the jail-to-homelessness pipeline experienced by individuals with serious mental illness. Dr. Castillo holds national leadership roles in research and medical education. He was a member of the second cohort of the New Voices Initiative of the US National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine. He is a member of the Mental Health Advisory Committee of the AAMC and a member of the APA Council for Advocacy and Government Relations. He is a faculty member in the Career Development Institute for Psychiatry and is a member of the content development and review team of the National Anti-racism in Medicine Curriculum Coalition. He is also an associate editor for Academic Psychiatry, column editor for Research, Community, and Services Partnerships for the journal Psychiatric Services, and editorial board member of Community Mental Health Journal. Within AADPRT, Dr. Castillo is a member of the JEDI Committee, a mentor in the Nyapati Rao and Francis Lu IMG Fellowship, and former member of the Nominating Committee, and former representative of the organization to the editorial board of Academic Psychiatry.