

American Association of Directors of Psychiatric Residency Training

Biosketch

Adrienne Adams, MD

AADPRT Position: Chair, Diversity and Inclusion Committee

Adrienne Adams, MD, MS has been the Child & Adolescent Psychiatry Fellowship Director at Rush University Medical Center since 2007. She has always been an advocate for child issues and has been interviewed by WGN Radio 720, Chicago Tribune, and the CBS local news.

Since early in her training she has been involved with AACAP, AMA, and APA. She has served on the Illinois Council of Child & Adolescent Psychiatry (ICCAP) board for several terms, treasurer, regional assembly delegate and currently finishing her Presidency term (2016-2018) as the first African- American female. Dr. Adams is a board member for the PRITE Editorial Board, IPS trustee, and has been on several AADPRT taskforces as well as regional representative for region IV.